FUTURE PROGRAMS:

30/10/96 Air Rifle Club - Shooting Lions

6/11/96 Combined Services Dinner - See news for further information.

13/11/96 Yvonne Macleod - Snowy Scheme revisited - this meeting falls when some of our members are hosting Japanese teachers (9-16/11/96) who might also be visitors at this meeting.

20/11/96 Clubs AGM - Club Assembly - no visitors please.

27/11/96 Lyn Baxter - Not strictly ball room dancing.

NEWS AND HAPPENINGS:

 Combined Services Dinner: Organised by Apex this year. Will be at the Cooma Ex-Service Club on Wednesday 6/11/96 - a 3 course meal - cost $20 per head. DEFINATELY partners invited night, something different this year, no Guest Speaker, but entertained by the Youth of Cooma. Some of our budding musical talent and school of dancing - should be great, bring your partner along. Numbers by 30/10/96 - will be a sheet around next meeting.

 District Governor 1998/99 - District 9710: Information from DG John Louttit, that PP Max Kuhnell of the Rotary Club of Eden was selected as our Districts nominated District Governor for 1998/99 and if no challenges were received by 8/10/96 he would be declared DG Nominee.

 Rotary's World Convention: To be held in Glasgow 15 - 18 June 1997. Dr Bob addressed last meeting advising that anyone interested in going to this convention had better see him ASAP (preferably yesterday) to ensure you have accommodation secured in Glasgow. There are two very cheap trips on offer for Rotarians, that will get you there for the Conference. First with Arthur Moorehouse via Japan, London, Wales, Ireland - Convention - then Scotland. Second trip with Bruce Sharp via Sydney - China - Mongolia - Trans Siberian Railway across Russia to also end up at the Convention. However for more information and to book your place - See Dr Bob pretty quick.
