NEWS AND HAPPENINGS:

From Raglan Gallery: Does any one know where the Brass Plate (Bicentennial Plate) has gone. If not does anyone know what was on the Plaque so that it can be replaced.

Letter in from Bill Rowlings: Re the Citibank Sponsorship offer this district through President (bearded) Brian rejected unanimously by a margin of 100%. The Citibank offer related to a $15,000 sponsorship less $5,000 for expenses. Thanks to Pres. Brian this district was the only one to reject the offer. Well done all District Presidents.

Welcome to Jim Hatfield: Our newest member. Classification: Credit Union Management. Jim is married to Mary and they have 4 children, Brad, Andrew, Hendrika and Georgie. In Jim's past lives he has been in the RAAF, serving at East Sale, Laverton, Townsville, Melbourne and Wagga. Joining the State Building Society in 1978 as Regional Manager he then moved to the Wagga Mutual Credit Union as GM in 1985 and to the Snowy Monaro Credit Union in 1995 where he is now GM.

From the Board Meeting: Plans tabled by Des T and Trustees have agreed to the site (between the Lions Shed and Air Rifle Club). We have to find a suitable entrance.

Vale – Herbie Worofka: Finally at peace. Our deepest sympathy goes to Caroline and family at this time. Thank you to John C for your moving eulogy. Herbie's wit, humour and smiling face will be sadly missed by all.

From Canberra Sunrise: Calling for donations for a Rotary matching grant for the "Street Children of Ulan Bator" which is in Mongolia. Can anyone help?

Show Rotary Cares Signs: are now up. Thanks to Dave H and a golf game!
