NEWS AND HAPPENINGS:

-  Tony D reports that volunteer Family Store members are required and asks if you can help to call 64521327.
-  A presentation of their products and achievements was given by Jade and Janet from the Young Achievers program. ONYAMATE was awarded second place in Marketing Excellence and displayed an excellent range of their products. The group was guided by the Young Achievers business skills kit in the set up and running of the company. Shares were issued and the target return to shareholders is 20%, the group seem to be on track to achieving this return.
-  Steve S: gave an overview of the newspaper industry and detailed the operations of the Cooma-Monaro Express and Summit Sun (apologies for putting you all to sleep).
-  St. Patrick's Debating Team: a letter of thanks from debaters Nikki Rowson, Melissa Gentz, Paul Toole, Annabel Fleming and Teacher Sue Stubbs for financial assistance given by our club, and particularly to Brian Jeffries and Alan Frost for information re Polio Plus and Rotary Motto 1998/99 "Follow Your Dream" which greatly assisted their performance in winning. The team will be dining with us next week and it was agreed that a $2 levy will be set to help pay for dinner.
-  Renate Phillips: will be going to NZ in January on the Twin Exchange program.
-  Reminders:
Cooma District Band "Getting to Know You" 13/9/98. See Sec. Des by 3/9/98.
Member's Telephone List: See Past Pres. Mark ASAP.
Rotary Club of Bowral Mittagong's Charity Golf Day 25/10/98.
-  The Clubs Thredbo Appeal: Yes, we are still getting donations with two cheques received this week $555 from Rotary District 9680 Administration fund and $100 Past DG of 9680 Brian Coleman. Thank you very much Brian for your support.
