NEWS AND HAPPENINGS:

Melbourne Cup Raffle Tickets: Rob Simms needs help selling tickets particularly during business hours. They will be on sale outside Hook's Pharmacy on Saturday and Woolworth's Monday. Please call Rob if you can assist.

Des Trute: requested that all raffle tickets (Fun Run) that have not been sold should be handed in to him ASAP.

The Lions Club: is organising the annual interservice clubs dinner for November 11 at the Ex-Services Club. Timing is 6.30 for 7 pm. Des has to advise our numbers by November 6, cost is expected to be around $15. Guest speaker is Ian Kelly from the Australian War Memorial.

Our Guest Speaker Gote Vikstrom: described his incredible trip from Australia to Sweden. He left Twofold Bay on Anzac Day 1997 and traveled 15,000 km in 15 months in his home built yacht named "Polo Flat". During his journey he stopped at 55 ports, met and journeyed alongside other lone sailors, was attacked by pirates who attempted to board the "Polo Flat" and fired shots in the process. Gote rescued a fellow Australian who's yacht was grounded and sank, he then bought him an air ticket back to Australia using virtually the last of his own money. Gote eventually arrived safely and is now planning his return trip via the Atlantic.
