Overall profit $1,946.45

Pacific Islander Students: arrive on January 19 at 4 pm at Centennial Park, depart 21 January. Official welcome is at Norris Park on January 20. Billets have now been arranged.

Rotary, Apex & Lions: each donated $700 for the purchase of a wheel chair, which was presented to the Harden family for their son.

Tony D: advised that a special viewing of The Prince of Egypt and supper is to be held at the Savoy on January 14. Adults $10, Kids $7, Family (2 adults & 2 kids or 1 adult & 3 kids) $30. Please come along and help the cause.

Show and Tell: Rob S gave a riveting lecture on an unfortunate incident that a sleeper cutter encountered with a rabbit trap some years ago. Rob was able to demonstrate to the dinner audience through words exactly how this poor chap felt and the significant pain he suffered.

Alan Frost related his Christmas experience attending carols in the main chamber of Jenolan Caves.

Les Strezelecki brought along his video compilation of the 90 Summernats in Canberra.

All agreed there were some very streamlined chassis on display.

Very Important Notice: Darrel G has again reminded members to advise him if they are not attending the dinner meeting. Last nights meeting was significantly over catered for and members not advising can be required to pay for their meal.
