

ROTARY BULLETIN

Next Meeting: Wednesday 23 June 1999

Grand Court Chinese Restaurant (Our New Venue)

Assembly & Start Time: 6:00 pm for 6:30 pm

Subject: President Gordon's Final Furlong – Humour, Port and Fellowship

Introduced by: Darrell Gaukroger

Vote of Thanks: John Mercer

Apologies and Guests: Advise Darrell Gaukroger – 6452 3302 – by midday Wednesday

Non attendance and non apology means the meal cost is paid.

Fax-a-fine – Mark Revelant– 6452 1851

Attendance: John Jacoby & Ashley Constance Property: Bill Roach

Please arrange for one member of the team to be there early. If you can't be there please arrange a substitute.

Thought of the Week: "Study the past, live the present, prepare for the future" and " We see much, observe little and perceive less" Heather J. Next Week: Col Hackney

Future Programs:

30 June - Changeover Dinner – ExServicemens ($22) – Bill Doherty DG's Rep.

7 July – Allison Coles – Sports Injuries

14 July – Club Assembly – Review of Club Planning for 99 / 2000

News & Happenings:

- The Veterans Hockey Weekend as a joint Service Clubs venture was a success and learning exercise. It also looks as if there may be some profit gained from the exercise. Thanks to the 21 Rotarians plus Georgina H, Chris M, Iain M and Ed. J
- Lions Club Change Over – Monday 26 June $20 details from Secretary Des
- Cooma's Memorial Wall Official Opening – Friday 25 June 1.00 pm
- Our membership evening could produce six new members
- Prostate Cancer Raffle drawn at Changeover – thanks to local business for prizes
- New Board Directors / Committee Chairs to meet with committees before Assembly
- Les Strezlecki's video presentation of Lindsay Hain's reflections was exceptional. Produced by Les with Lindsay over a four week period of touring the district prior to Lindsey's death in 1993. He reflected on Cooma's history highlighting Lambie Street buildings, night clubs, brothels, Nanny Goat Hill and the Hain Centre development. He explained the development of Cooma and his vision for the future. A truly memorable portrayal of a very special man who played a major role in the development of Cooma and was a Founder Member of the Rotary Club of Cooma.

Attendance Last Week: 33 + 2 makeups out of 41 members = 85%

Guests: Edith (Alan F)

Visiting Rotarian: Peter MacFarlane (Maitland)

Apologies: Darrell G, Michael L, Ken P, Ken D

Leave of Absence: Peter & Judy T, Carlo P, Dave H, Lou M,

We also missed: Tony DeT

Bulletin Reporter: John Mercer