THOUGHT OF THE WEEK by Col Hackney

Leadership is action – not position Next Week: Alan D

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Chris Adams talk about his “elephant”, purchased in Bali when he was on a holiday was hilarious. He wanted something “unusual” to display in front of his baker shop in Nimmitabel to attract attention!!! Chris’ early days in the shop with his mother, father, with very old ovens and heating for baking created lots of laughs. He employs eighteen people.

NEWS:

Pres. John: attended the presentation of the podiatry chair to the hospital. He also attended the Monaro High Schools performance of the Rock Eisteddfod at Wollongong.

Rotary: received a letter of thanks from St Vincent de Paul for the $300 donation for their winter appeal.

Rotary Markets: Aug 15th. Snow Special. If rostered and can't be there please find replacement.

Speakers: Any ideas for speakers for our meetings. Think hard and tell Col H.

Raglan Gallery: A wonderful display of photos and old past cards by Charles Henry. Well worth a visit. Charles Henry was born in Bombala 1859. This display was donated to the Bombala District Historical Society for permanent display in Bombala by the Powerhouse Museum. Two weeks more.

Tony DeT: thanked all those who helped move goods from Polo Flat to the new shed in Salvation Army grounds. All done in 1.5 hours.
