THOUGHT OF THE WEEK by John J

You cannot achieve anything without enthusiasm.

Next Week: Les Sutcliffe.

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

David Byrne gave a talk on local engineering and reminded us of the many local projects beautifying the whole community. Parks, sports fields, pools, roads etc. He emphasized that he is always looking for community input and encouragement of young people to follow an engineering profession, many opportunities. David mentioned the great concern of all Councils about the increasing litigation regarding footpath accidents. Col Hackney completed the presentation of engineering input to the community, with the hope of raising community awareness of the very important roll of engineers.

NEWS:

Kevin Dunne: was inducted into Cooma Rotary Club. Kevin was born in McKay, Qld, moved to Sydney and won a teachers scholarship at the age of sixteen. Later studied at Monaro High School, Cooma.
