No man is an island, Any mans death diminishes me

For I am included in mankind, Therefore, send not for whom the bell yells,

The bell yells for thee.

(John Dunne 1691-1730)

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Alison Coles gave us a very interesting and informative talk on sports medicine/physiotherapy, which is a 4-year course. Alison was born in Cootamundra and in 1982 graduated from Sydney Uni and worked in Canberra for 2 years and then moved to Cooma in 1984, opened her clinic in 1989. Today's treatment includes acupuncture and laser, but hands on massage and exercise is very widely used as it was in the early days during the terrible polio epidemics. Alison is hoping to be part of the physiotherapy team keeping the athletics "fit" during the Olympic Games (1999 logo "move well and stay well").

NEWS:
