THOUGHT OF THE WEEK By Tom D

The trouble with ignorance is that it picks up confidence as it goes along. Next Week: Alan F

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Pres Carlo Ravizza, via video, gave a stunning speech to all his district governors which was relevant to all Rotarians. He brought to attention for all clubs to focus on increased commitment from their members to the ideals of Rotary in order to strengthen Club membership. The year 2005 will celebrate Rotary's 100th birthday and Pres. Ravizza challenged Rotarians to build on past successes and to face the new millenium with a fresh spirit of enthusiasm.

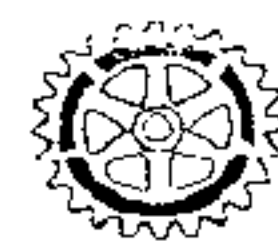

NEWS:

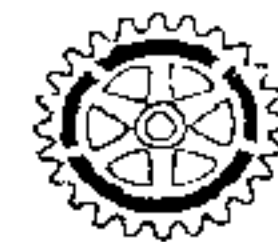

Resignation: It is with regret that the Board accepted the resignation of Jim Nightingale.

Neville Locker: has had 3 months leave of absence approved form 3/8 to 3/11/99. He is very involved with the tourists seasons, winter, now spring and the Snowy 50th Anniversary events.

Tom D: nice to have Tom D back after 3 months soaking up the sun in the mid north coast. Despite the rain (more than usual) he has a nice tan.

Tom Bellgard: We welcome Tom as a new member of Cooma Rotary.

Rotary Soccer/Market Weekend: Soccer $526.30 (half for soccer club). Markets: Stalls $488.00, BBQ $771.30. Profit $1141.35
