THOUGHT OF THE WEEK by Alan F

The only time an experienced husband puts his foot down is when his wife has finished vacuuming under it!! Next Week: Mark R

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Phil Coulton of Great Southern Energy gave a thorough coverage of the Y2K checks carried out in that organisation over the last two years. The approximately $1 million cost has been good value in preparing the organisation for business in the next century and no major end of the year problems were discovered. Phil said "he would be sitting with his feet up, on the big day, waiting for nothing to happen!!"

NEWS:

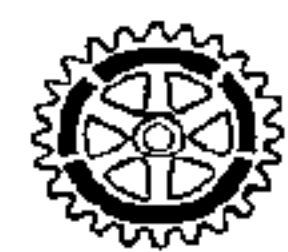

138 Rotarians Honoured: for outstanding service. Recipients of the 1998/99 RI Service Above Self-Award for outstanding service and devotion to Rotary. Francis Rands, Rotary Club of Kaduna, Nigeria has been "tireless, outstanding and dedicated" according to his nominee. Vladimir Donskor, Rotary Club of Inkutsk, Russia is often referred to as "the father of Rotary in Russia". As a leading professor he still finds time to coordinate visits from Rotarians worldwide.

Rotary East Timor Appeal: Donations may be made at the Commonwealth Bank, Cooma. $400 donated by Rotary.

Condolences to Gai Epstein: & family on the death of her mother in New Zealand.

Determined Rotarians in UK: District 1260 have found a way to share the rich experiences of Youth Exchange with students who normally wouldn't be able to afford a trip abroad. The district worked hard to raise enough money to bring together 29 students from 10 countries in Eastern Europe to a Youth Exchange camp last summer and plans are being made to repeat the successful venture in 2001.

A reminder – Spring Time Concert (Classical) – Platypus Lodge 9 October. 8 pm.
