THOUGHT OF THE WEEK BY: Tony Slater

Next Week: Graham French

In seeking happiness for others, you find it for yourself.

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Outgoing GYE student Ester Laub spoke to the club on her preparations, received her blazer, a pack including flag thanks to Gary Nairn, also a survival pack of Vegemite, Milo and a Vegie Beanie from Alison H-J. Look forward to hearing from Ester when she returns, have a good time and am sure you will be terrific ambassador for Cooma and Australia.

Thence Rotarian Geoff Bowland gave an overview of Cooma, Past- Present, and future. With overheads of the towns development over the years. Geoff's theme is "Monaro is the best place" to ensure it stays this way the citizens and Rotarians should influence the future development by being involved in community organizations like Cooma Unlimited so that heritage and future has guidance.
