THOUGHT OF THE WEEK BY:

Next Week: Col Adams

Only one Australian Capital City has an aboriginal name – Canberra which means “Young Jackass”.

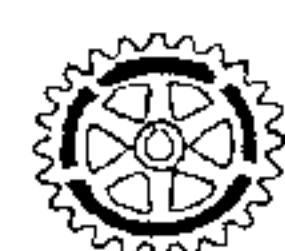

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

The changeover dinner went over well from John Mercer to Cooma's first Lady President in Julie Johnston. DG John Lawrence did the Induction of New President. Julie, with your small shovel, for as a Breeder of Bulls, you will need a much larger shovel for Cooma Members. Thank you John Mercer for a good year, and we wish Julie all the best for her year.

NEWS:

The Club members and guests missed Alan Frost who has had a fall, we hope that you will soon be back on your feet again Alan.

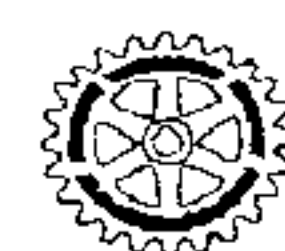

Young people can and will do well in Rotary. Katrina Weaver gave the Toast to Rotary International and did an outstanding job, thank you Katrina. What a good Rotarian she would make. Reply on behalf of RI President DG John Lawrence. Some one will have to give a book of jokes.

Raffle organised by Heather went to three Lions members – all at the same table! But Rotary had the last laugh with Alyson Hulley-Jeffries and Les Sutcliffe's Man From Snowy River.

Apex Changeover Dinner will be held on Saturday 25th July 2000 7 pm for 7.30 pm at Cooma Exservices Cub. Cost $20 per head. RSVP 10th July.

Caroline Worofka was made first Lady HONORARY MEMBER of Cooma Rotary.
