THOUGHT OF THE WEEK BY: Alan Hall Next Week: Dugald Mitchell

Before you criticise someone, you should walk a mile in their shoes. That way, when you criticise them, you're a mile away and you have their shoes.

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Well last meeting sports night? Should I stop or go on with some good tales? Darrell get another pair of trousers, you have a hole in front as well as back. Graham French Cowes Week 1976. I would like to talk to him about Yachting for an hour or two, but where he is at the moment maybe too hard to sail a yacht on his dam. Alan Frost made a great number of centuries as a scorer. Well I had better leave it now as Rotarians sport through Time.

NEWS:

Keith Goodwin still needs your help in selling raffle tickets, for the Australian Rotary Health Research Fund 2000 Christmas Card Collection.

We will have for sale at the dinners, Christmas Cards only $10.50 (GST Inc) per pack of 10. See Gordon.

An invitation to the launch of "Cooma Calendar Boys" (I think that should be old men) during Cooma Fest on Wednesday October 18th at the Cooma Little Theatre commencing at 6.30 pm followed by light refreshments. "Cooma Calendar Boys" are selling for $15.

Gay Epstein, thank you from the club members for bringing your Olympic torch to Rotary dinner meeting of the 20th September 2000. I am sorry I overlooked it in the last Bulletin. Alan & Edith Frost have received a letter from Gary Nairn, Federal Member for Eden-Monaro saying Congratulations for Celebrating 40 years of active membership with the Rotary Club of Cooma.

One of the greatest salesmen was the man who sold a farmer two milking machines when he had only one cow, and then accepted the cow as a down payment.

Rotarians can play a key role in helping people with disabilities find meaningful jobs. Rotarian Young Woo Kang, an educator and vice-chair of the United Nations World Committee on Disability. Blinded by a sports injury at the age of 16, Rotarian Kang has enjoyed a life that demonstrates it's the lack of opportunity. For Young Woo from Korea now 56, opportunity came in the form of encouragement, especially from Rotarians, Rotary Clubs and Districts and the Rotary Foundation. The Rotarian August p22.
