LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Combined Services Dinner very well hosted by the Cooma Apex Club. Dale Cochran received his National Award by Apex District Governor for Young Apexian of the year. Congratulations to you Dale from all Service Club members and the community. Lucy Bowerman thanked the Cooma Calendar boys, so far $5,000 has been raised for the local Hospital. Next years Calendar girls maybe some Rotarians, better not say any more?

Night of entertainment with Jim Brindle poem by Col Wilson better known as "Blue the Shearer". Mayor, Peter Cochran with his poem "Wild Horses" in the park maybe?

And the Braemar Dancers, three lots of about three minutes each from their show from Canberra Play House, Canberra.

Lucky Door prize for three people, 45 minutes joy flight over the Snowy Mountains. Two Rotarians names came out in Kevin Dunne and Alan Hall. Two Lady Apexian members from a Canberra Club were there. Lady Apexian have their own clubs which are different to Lions and Rotary. The music was a little loud. Well now some Rotary news.

NEWS:

 Club Assembly: This dinner. Members who would like to see some changes to their Club can have their say. Nominations for the 2000/2001 Board are now invited, and should be forwarded to the Secretary.

 Congratulations: to Bill and Annette Roach on the birth of their third son and both are well. Zac was born in Canberra. Dad is well, but he is a Bank Manger, Bottle Washer, Child Carer, and will be more than pleased to see Annette home.

 The Health Challenge: On Saturday 18 November, a group of 22 senior citizens will set out on a remarkable bicycle ride from Melbourne to Sydney via Canberra. They are 65's and over. I have heard they are staying at Les Sutcliffe's. Well age is deceiving, well he has the right hair do for a bike rider, but I though he received his hair do from running after, or is it running to the water hole?

 A past member of Cooma Rotary Club, Carolyn Soucek was made a Paul Harris Fellow of Belconnen Club.

 "Dare To Dream": Rotary proudly presents "Dare to Dream" Sunday 11 February 2001 at 4 pm. Sydney Town Hall. Tickets $50 Ticketek on 02 9266 4800. Club bookings are to be returned to the Rotary Club Lower Blue Mountains at PO Box 66, Glenbrook NSE 2773.

ROTARY INFORMATION:

Attendance Last Week: 33 members out of 38 = 89.4% Guests: Mavis Wellington (Club). Too many for list. Apologies: Gordon H; Alan D; Francois LeG; Ken P; Bill R Leave of Absence: Carlo P; Michael L

ROTARY INFORMATION: Pioneering Leader In Service

Fellow Australians know Beryl Nashar as a groundbreaker in both her scientific field-geology, & in service to others. The first woman in her country to receive a Rotary Foundation Scholarship, she studied geology at Cambridge, England, in 1949-50. Paul Harris Fellows: 719,764. Foundation Benefactors: 48,480 Major Donors: 2,954. A little Foundation fact. (The Rotarian September 2000 p46)
