Welcome and congratulations to all members. President Ashley will take over 30 June 2001, that's if we get through the pace of this year.

NEWS:

Rotary Shed: Well done Dave Holgate and a team of three others, have the roof on Rotary's shed, all but the iron, and the main door is arriving today.

Carols in the Park: on Thursday night went off well, and so did the fairy floss for the kiddies, a total of $511.80 was taken. At the Markets on the Sunday: BBQ $601.15, Stalls $535.00, a total over Thursday and Sunday of $1,647.95. Costs $530.00. Profit of $1,117.95. And we have on hand steaks and sausages for January markets. A big thank you to Caroline Worofka for helping out at the Carols and Market.

There will be no more Rotary Information after this Bulletin, as a book has not been returned.

Doris and I would like to send to Members and partners and families a little message sent to wish that Christmas brings you joy and New Year happiness.
