THOUGHT OF THE WEEK BY:

Next Week: Jim Hatfield

There was no thought of the week owing to change over dinner.

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

The change-over-dinner went over very well from Cooma's first Lady President Julie Johnston to Ashley Constance both over came nerves and spoke very well. Louisa Pauletto gave the Toast to Rotary International, and Louisa did it very well. The chook lost its head. The guillotine came from a shearing shed, the sword from the bush and maybe infected with white ants, and a headless chook running around well that's Rotary's lot of laughs. Good raffle organised by Heather. Full marks to MC Alyson Hulley-Jeffries. A good night was had by all.

NEWS:

A lot of members would not know that 15 years ago, on 27th July 1986 Cooma Rotary Club held its last dinner at the Corroboree Room, and the Late Fred Tucker came in as President. The Club then moved to the Cooma Motor Lodge.

Market Day Roster for July Sunday 15th. Coll Adams, Tony Slater, Graham French, John Clarke. If unable to attend please arrange for a substitute.

Alan, with one L, Frost will be 87 years young on the 8th July. I would say the Club will wish you a happy birthday at the next meeting.
