Thought of the week by: Margaret E

God created the world out of nothing, and so long as we are nothing, he can make something out of us (A little help from Martin Luther)

Next Week: Julie J

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Club Assembly – President Ashley

And his directors gave the club a an overview and explanation of their plans and objectives for the coming year, if you weren't there or want further information just approach Ashley or your Director, I'm, sure they would have a copy of same and be willing to explain.

NEWS:

Congratulations to Alan and Katherine Dodd on the birth of their daughter last Wednesday. A Big Welcome to Erin Marguerite 7lb, 51 cms.

Apex Changeover is on Saturday 28 July 2001 at Mystic Phoenix (The Old Blue Bird) cost $25 per head, RSVP to Les Sutcliffe ASAP.

The Rotary Club of Canberra City is presenting the ACT's 11 "Springtime Antique and Collectibles Fair", in The Albert Hall, Commonwealth Ave, Canberra Friday 16 August (6.00pm – 9.00pm) Saturday 17 August (10am-6.00pm) and Sunday 19 August (10am – 4.00pm).

Markets Last Sunday. B.B.Q $ 591.85 Cost $325.96 Profit: $265.89 with steak left over to be frozen for next month. There were only 19 stalls, fees collected $261 of which the club retains half (not a bad result considering the day).

VALE: Our deepest sympathy to Lou and Sue Moore on the passing of Sue's Mum. Darrel G addressed the Club on his visit to the Rotary International Convention at San Anton Texas, which has the largest Rotary Club in the world with 820 members and average over 500 at a meeting. (glad I do not deliver the bulletins at that Club). Darrel said he enjoyed himself, mostly involved in the music, caught up with a friend he, met previously. It was held in the huge Convention Centre, there were a few hiccups. Like queuing up for hours for food, but he had some luck and sold his ticket to the Texas B.B.Q, some speakers apparently waffled on and on. Regular attendees remembered the professional manner in which Aussie R I President Glen Kinross ran in Australia, this Convention certainly did not come up to the standard of the R.E Convention in Melbourne, in 1993.

FUTURE PROGRAMS:
