David Epstein: Sustainable Development. Green Development. Integrating Ecology and Real Estate. Global warming. Flora and Fauna, Human shelter. Review of Land and Environment policy. A very interesting speech. He has spoken to the Snowy River Shire and would like to speak to Cooma Monaro Shire and Bombala Shire. By the number of questions by members they were very interested.

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

The club raffle was won by two guests, who picked out their own tickets. good luck to them, no names there were only two guests.

There was a big rush by some males to get to the Multi-Function Centre after the Club meeting to see the calendar girls, they way they put a special show on for the old males.

ROTARY INFORMATION:

Nearly three years ago in Uganda, I met a Rotarian who told me that as a child he read his fathers copies of the Rotarian magazine from cover to cover, several times, until the pages were worn and tattered. He said that the stories of Rotarians around the world captured his imagination, and that he dreamed of the day when he too could become a Rotarian. In the early 1970's, however, Dictator Idi Amin rose to power and Rotary, along with many other valuable institutions disappeared for more than a decade. The Rotarian Oct. p3.
