LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Canadian Ambassadorial Scholar Adam Nagler from Hamilton Ontario was introduced to the Combined Bombala/Cooma meeting at Nimmitabel by Rotarian David Edwards from Weston Creek. Adam has a masters degree in Public Policy and is the co-author of several books on disability. He came to Canberra to major in Peace and Conflict Studies. The idea to study overseas was suggested by a family friend in Rotary and as most Canadians have a poor knowledge of Australia it seemed like a good choice. The Rotary Club of Hamilton has 63 members and the district covers both sides of the Canada-USA border. Adam mentioned some of the club projects such as a "Health Van" similar to our bookmobile, reintegration of street kids, equestrian Assoc. for disabled and a farm auction which was a major fund raiser.

NEWS:

Nursing Home Fete: Bring a bottle of wine for Auction or be fined.
