THOUGHT OF THE WEEK BY: Ashley C

Next Week: Robyn C

No person is ever honoured for what he received. Honour has been the reward for what he gave.

LAST WEEKS MEETING:

Another great night of fellowship and fun with the Members of the Tuggeranong Rotary Club, and chance to renew friendships. A big thanks to the club members who took part in the entertainment. Louise for taking on the role of Cinderella (you must have spent a lot of time learning your LINES – all right. But please don't take your ugly sisters home, your parents would have a heart attack). Margaret E did an excellent job as the producer/director of costumes. Alyson Hulley-Jeffries for preparing the questions for the trivia quiz, and the team who beat Tugga's 16-12 well done. The raffle and fines session raised $180 which was presented to the Bredbo Fire Brigade.

NEWS:

Markets Last Week: A very good day, plenty of visitors and stall holders. 44 stalls paid $640. $320 each to Project and Market promotional fund. Caravan sales $965, costs $578, profit $386. A good result.

Camp Quality: A letter of thanks from Camp Quality for the BBQ lunch at Jindabyne a fortnight ago. But also from the Club a big thank you to the ORIGINAL HOTBAKE for the donation of the bread/buns and sweets which they donated to this catering event.

Joint Board Meeting: will be held on 17 April 2002.
