LAST WEEKS MEETING

The Club Christmas Party.

A very enjoyable night which started with nibbles at the railway station, then a train trip to Chakolla, during which there was the chance of a little chatter with others.

An excellent meal catered for by the Ladies from Cooma Vintage Railway, and a lovely cake donated by Sumchit. There were 70 odd members, families and guests, some adorned in Christmas regalia, but of course Julie J was the standout fashion statement.

Our musical director, Darrel G led us in Christmas carols on his piano accordion, assisted by Allison Hulley J, (even played John Mooney's favorite Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer.

Thank you to all those who joined us.
