Weekly Bulletin

The Rotary Club of Cooma Inc.

Welcome President Cheryl

Wednesday night was our annual change over dinner where (now Past President) John handed over the Presidency of the club to Cheryl Mould under the supervision of the D.G's Representative, our own aerobics instructor, Michael Pedler.

President Cheryl with DG Elect Michael Pedler

We also said farewell to our exchange Student Hanna, who will be returning to Japan next week (Unless she is snowed in at the Adams') with a rendition of "For she's a jolly good Fellow" it has been great to have Hanna in our club, she has fitted in well, been a great ambassador for her country, has matured greatly, but hasn't got much taller.

Bulletin Changes

Bulletin delivery will change from this week with the production moving from PP John to Steve S. This means mail deliveries will be delayed by a few days. You will be able to download the bulletin from the club website www.d9710.rotary.org.au/Cooma or have it emailed to you the moment production is finished by letting Steve know.

Presidential Citation & DGs Achievement Award

President John was presented with the District Governor's Achievement Award plus the Rotary International Presidential Citation for the year 2006/7.

Thought of the week!

Temptation usually comes through the door that has been deliberately left open
