SOME SIMPLE RULES ABOUT ROSTERS

GENERAL: Members rostered on and not able to attend are to make arrangements with another member to take their place.

MARKETS: Those nominated to tow the caravan or chuck wagon are to be at the Rotary shed no later than 8am. Ensure you get the key to the shed from John Mooney PRIOR TO THE EVENT SO THE EQUIPMENT CAN BE SET UP EARLY. If you are unable to tow the van or chuck wagon PLEASE ASK SOME ONE WHO CAN, or advise John Mooney before the event. Others nominated should be at the Park by 8.45am.

ATTENDANCE: For normal meetings YOU must advise Darrell (6452 3302) by midday Monday if not attending or bringing a guest. If you don't apologise then you must pay the dinner fee. Special meetings may require your apology or guest advice earlier.

The Winners

This weeks meeting was the clubs annual Pride of Work Awards to employees nominated by their employers. Chris Adams, all dressed up in his dinner suit and black bow tie, opened with an address of the importance of employers recognising their employee contribution to the business (his wife Kim said she has never seen dress up to take her out before).

The club received fourteen nominations and after reviewing, eleven were forwarded for judging with six selected for the award. Lisa Jardine and Donna Robinson from Mark Kenmir and Associates, Bernie Sixt from Cooma Rural Supplies, Pauline Bolton from Gordon Litchfield Wool, Corey Bedingfield from Dick Smith Electronics, Karen Spencer from Nimmitabel Bakery. Each recipient had a framed citation read out by their nominator, which was also presented to them with their Pride of Work Plaque. The citation which was composed by their employer identified the leadership, managerial and communication skills, client and customer service skills displayed by the recipient. Also their ability and willingness to accept higher management duties when required, to allow employers some free time. They were all worthy recipients.
