Cooma/Tuggeranong Dinner - Michelago

Our joint meeting with Tuggeranong Rotary Club at Michelago, had 19 members plus 6 guests that filled the 25 seat bus that Darrel G. organised and drove for us. Luckily we didn't hit any kangaroos thanks to roo watcher Kim L., but we did wipe out a feral rabbit on the way home. It was good to catch up with all our friends from Tuggeranong. Des T. read out a poem on "Dad's Outdoor Loo", then not to be outdone Tuggeranong's Ray Williams, who said he is a versologist (don't know what that is, cant find it in the dictionary) gave us some of his poems!!! Our raffle lady and the sergeants extracted $275 from the members which was as usual donated to the Michelago Bush Fire team. This was made possible by the sergeants almost cleaning out DG Elect Michael and Ron Kelly's wallets. Barbara's fame preceded her with an unknown bidder offering $30 for photo of her last day on Trek-away.

THIS MORNING'S POLICE REPORT Police in Sydney are looking for a Spaniard by the name of Joseph Gomez. He is 6'6" and 240 pounds. Before moving to Sydney he was living in England at Tooting near Liverpool. They know that he played the flute in the Sydney Symphony Orchestra and that his mother who is now a nun, is living in Barcelona. They know that he worked part time as a ploughboy in Haifa, where he is wanted for looting. Police are looking for a Hi falooting, looting, tooting son of a nun from Barcelona, part-time ploughboy Joe. Humour by Des!
