New Members inducted

President Pamela had the pleasure of inducting two new members into our club. Margaret Hassall, a former banana bender came to Cooma in the early 60's and has had a 48 year career in education, with diverse areas of management. Margaret's classification is Teacher Librarian, and she has already taken on the Club's Public Relations and Media portfolios. The other member inducted was Mark Cooper; his sponsor David Byrne said he has known Mark for over 15 years and found him to be a family orientated person, actively involved in the community including St Moritz Ski Club and SMASPA. He has a building degree and worked on major shopping centre redevelopments. His classification is Project Management. A big welcome to these new members, and thanks to their sponsors.

ANU Medical Students come to Dinner

Three of the visiting 25 ANU medical students had dinner with us. Of the 25 students visiting Cooma this week, seventeen are studying medicine and eight are studying pharmacology. They each spoke about where they came from, what encouraged them to undertake their course and where they hope to work. Catherine Cooper, came from Sydney to study at ANU and said the reason she is studying pharmacology is the need for these services, and humanitarian rights. George Nonas comes from the ACT and said he would like to help the people of the ACT. Lindsay Sheriden also comes from the ACT and said the reason he is undertaking medical studies is that he has had an interest in medical matters from a very young age. All of them said they found the residents of Cooma very friendly, and would like to practice in similar communities.
