This week the Rotary Club of Cooma changed meeting nights to Friday in order to meet and greet the D5490 Group Study Exchange team from Arizona. The team arrived at 11am on Friday to a reasonably busy day where they were picked up at Centennial Park by their host families, lunched at PD Murphy's, met with Snowy Hydro Marketing Manager David Hogan and then moved on to Cooma Visitor Centre. The discussions were focused on tourism and how our region approaches the various markets. Cooma-Monaro Shire Council then provided a Civic Reception hosted by Mayor Vin Good; also attending was the Mayor of Snowy River Shire John Cahill and other senior Council staff. The team then moved on to the meeting venue to share dinner and fellowship with the club members and visitors. After dinner the team provided an insight into their vocational and family life in Arizona which for those members who had not traveled to Arizona provided a comprehensive economic and social background to their home state.
