Youth Exchange Double Act

Barbie

Charlotte

Sadness was mixed with happiness at this week's meeting of the Rotary Club of Cooma. It is with great sadness that we had our last chance as a club to see and hear Barbie say her goodbyes to our club and Cooma. Barbie departs Australia to return home on Thursday morning, flying out of Canberra at 07:30 am. In her typical manner Barbie covered off her eleven months with us and graciously thanked Rotary, Cooma Club, her host families and all those Rotarians and school friends who helped make her stay here an experience she won't forget. We'll miss you greatly Barbie!

Charlotte Cooper was part two of our double act and her talk helped to balance out the night. Charlotte gave a presentation based on what she will tell her Swedish host club when she presents to them over the coming year. Charlotte's talk covered Australian Sports and then went on to talk about Sweden itself.

Look who's back on board!! Yes it's Mark Cooper who returned some weeks ago from his not so happy motorcycle tour of India. Mark is well on the road to recovery and looking and feeling almost as good as new.
