Running with Club Runner

This week, club Secretary, Steve Shirvington provided a brief introduction to our new club management system. Club members were introduced to the facilities available to them when using the system. Members were asked to login and update their personal information to ensure that the club bulletin editor can use accurate information when adding information to the various birthday/anniversary sections. Special thanks were given to the club website sponsors, Monaro Freight, Dick Smith, KJ Stamp Sales and of course Dodds Hotel. Login to Club Runner at www.coomarotary.net.au Club Runner gives members the capacity to:

- Manage their personal information
 - Use the system to email members
 - Review the current duty roster
 - See what's happening in the four avenues of service
 - Download every club bulletin since January 2005
 - Access the club policies and guidelines
 - See their committee responsibilities
 - Non members can subscribe to the weekly bulletin
- Club Runner is a tool that will allow members and directors to access and update our website keeping the information current and interesting. For more training call Steve anytime.
