NZ Exchange and ANU Medical Students

Issue: 18 August

We were joined by One Tree Hill College exchange students who will be returning home on Saturday and the students from Monaro High School who will be joining them for six weeks. They had just had an overnight hosting at Cabramurra, thanks to Snowy Hydro, and visited some of the working stations. A couple of them then addressed the Club and said what a wonderful experience the visit had been. They had made many great friends and thanked their host families.

One Tree Hill College students

Jerome said he found the climate cold at times, wonder what part of New Zealand he comes from. John Vucic then gave us a focus on the ANU Medical two week rural experience and the visiting students, who are second year students, gave a brief report to the meeting. Adam who is a medical student has completed a vets degree, worked in Queanbeyan, said he has visited Cooma on his way to the snow a couple of times. Kent who is a city slicker said this was his first visit to a rural area. Liz was from Sydney. Brienna came from Braidwood. Sheldon is also from Sydney. Kenny from Sydney also said this

News

ATTENDANCE Katrin Hackney reminded members of their responsibilities in attendance as per the bulletin, and the cost non attendance has on the Club. Katrin issued a warning that if you don't comply she will continue to nag you.

CAREERS EXPO was again very successful with 26 stalls. A big thank you to all who assisted - Geoff for his organisation, and especially Ken Dane who not only assisted with setting up, running and packing up, but also had to open and thank stall holders.

MARKETS 41 stalls, 4 freebies - $910; Caravan - $1,560.15; Expenses - $575.22; Profit - $1,104.33.

KEMABOLO PROJECT the Snowy River Shire Revolve program and Jindabyne Lions have donated 200 bikes. However the Club will not be delivering them until after the wet seasons finishes, early next year.

Next week's program: Veronique Legrand
Our exchange student introduces herself - Partner's Night

Following week: Club Assembly
"How is the Club Travelling?"
