Medical Students on there Adventures

Issue: 30 March

Kate, Matt, Ian, Thomas, Rakesh and Sarah

Guest speakers were six of the 31 medical students who took part in the Rural Week Program designed to orientate them to some of the issues facing doctors in the country area. Sarah Wood who grew up in Sydney said it was great to be part of a medical interview with a patient. Ian Hong was born in Singapore, moved to Sydney with his family where he grew up, also said the program allowed them to view emergency procedures. Kate Moore is from NSW and her family have been involved in Medical matters for 28 years. Thomas Viu was from New Zealand then moved to Sydney. Matthew Tweedale was born in Adelaide then moved to Sydney with his fam-

Presentation

Katrin with Rewa and Nikki

Katrin H presented a cheque for $300 from Rotary to Rewa Nolan and Nikki Rabbite as a donation to the MAD (Mums and Dads) group. They have produced a DVD showing the work they are doing to support young parents. Their production won both National and State awards in the Australian Business Arts Foundation, Art and Health section. Nikki is the Youth Health Worker and Rewa was in charge of the filming The donation from Rotary will allow for burning of more DVDs for distribution to interested groups.

Humour - Des Trute

Asister and brother were talking to each other when the little boy gets up and walks over to his Grandpa and says "Grandpa, please make a frog noise?" The Grandpa says "NO". The little boy goes on "Please make a frog noise?" The Grandpa says "No, now go and play." The little boy then says to his sister, "Go and tell Grandpa to make a frog noise." So the little girl goes to her Grandpa and says "Please make a frog noise?" The Grandpa says "I just told your brother no, and I'm telling you no." The little girl says "Please, please Grandpa make a frog noise?" the Grandpa says "Why do you want me to make a frog noise?" The little girl replied "Because mommy said when you croak, we can go to Disney World."

News

GYE STUDENT IN AUSTRIA Claire Learoyd sent an email saying that she is still finding it a bit different going to school in the dark, but is really enjoying her experience and wanted a recipe for ANZAC biscuits for a treat for a local over there on Anzac Day. No doubt President Chris can oblige.

RYPEN is on at Mogo 12-15 April and we have two students that have nominated.

GLOBAL YOUTH EXCHANGE applications need to be in by 14 April.

RURAL URBAN NIGHT is on at Berridale on 13 April, please don't forget.

FLOOD APPEAL David H has a list of businesses to be approached for donations for this program and would like some assistance from members.

SIR WILLIAM HUDSON FETE Alyson H-J advised that the wine auction raised $558, well done again. But as she could not get around to pick up some donations from Les we already have some wine for next year's fete.

Next week's program: Brian Coyte PHF
"Future Prosperity of Cooma and the Region"

Following week: Rural Urban Night at Berridale
"The High Fire Project" - Barry Atchison and James Litchfield
