This week's meeting we had a presentation by several students. Firstly by Noah Learoyd and Camilo Dominish from the Snowy Mountains Christian School Interact Club who said they enjoyed assisting with the Sir William Hudson Nursing Home Fete, and the Hats in the park for Mental Health Research, and advised that in November they will be hosting a White Ribbon breakfast at the Marlborough Motel to support the program to prevent violence against women. The next was Allie Adams and Ryan Constance who spoke on the three day RYPEN program at Mogo; what the program contained, what they got out of it and the friendships they made. Laurence Redmond gave us a report on his One Tree College NZ Twin Exchange. Lastly our Belgium Exchange Student, Veronique (now known as the Nutella queen), spoke on her one year exchange which started on 28 July 2010 in a country she didn't know much about. Veronique thanked her four host families and their siblings, all of which were different but she fitted in well and became one of the family. She had a memorable event with each family that she will never forget. Veronique enjoyed school which was a bit different to the school back home; really appreciated the contact between students and teachers, and the free time. Christmas was different as it is summer here, the present opening and the BBQ New Year on the Adams' boat with the Sutcliffe's also on board. Her 18th birthday was a special event, and at Easter she was camping in Emerald and then attended the Royal Easter Show in Sydney. She said that the countryside is widely diverse and a lot different to home. She saw many bugs and a big spider in her bedroom (which she thought might need the fire brigade). She said the exchange was awesome, the experience of her life so far, which has probably changed her outlook. She doesn't know what her future outlook will be, but it has made her open her mind and made her realise a lot. Veronique thanked the Rotary club for having her and particularly her four host families. She even enjoyed joining us for our meetings and collecting the fines from members.
