Snowy River Shire and its Future - Joe Vescio

Rotarian-Joe Vescio, General Manager of Snowy River Shire Council, spoke on the future of the shire. He outlined the Council's area and infrastructure assets which are valued in excess of $300 million. He also spoke on their strategic plan for 1 to 4 years and 20 years and listening to the community and translating this data into themes. The seven key themes are - sustaining our environment for life, expanding connections within the shire and beyond, strengthening our local economy, creating a safer, healthier and thriving community, enhancing our active life style, managing development and service delivery whilst retaining what we value, and providing effective civic leadership and citizen participation. Each of these key themes have ways for this to be done. If you wish to know more please ask Joe and he will no doubt give you a copy of his talk.

Monaro Committee for Cancer Research - Dale Coyte

Dale Coyte gave us a report on the MCCR (Monaro Committee for Cancer Research). The MCCR was formed at the instigation of Jackie Sellars whose young mother, Helen Rose, died in 1996 after a five year battle with cancer. Jackie was determined to 'do something' to continue the fight against this disease. Dale gave us an excellent presentation on this important program, accordingly a copy of her

Rotary Youth Leadership Program - RYLA

Applicants are being sought for the next Rotary Youth Leadership Program (RYLA) to be run 15 - 20 January 2012 at Greenhills Conference Centre in Cotter, ACT. Applications close on 30 November 2011, the contact being David Byrne. The challenging six day program offers a unique opportunity for motivated individuals to access some influential and inspirational speakers and trainers. Attendees will be introduced to concepts of effective leadership including: fundamentals of leadership; ethics of positive leadership; effective communication; problem-solving and conflict management; and building self confidence and self-esteem.

Thought of the Week - Lou Moore

Experience is the name everyone gives to their mistakes.
