My Life and Times - John Barilaro MP

Issue: 26 October

John Barilaro was introduced by Les.

Thanks given by Richard

Guest speaker was John Barilaro who told Des that there was no need for him to take notes as he would send him his presentation for the bulletin. However, even though Des left messages on John's mobile on two occasions, the written presentation did not turn up, so instead Des has substituted a some humour.

good old days". Grandma turned to Grandpa and said, "Honey, do you remember when we first started dating? You used to just casually reach over and take my hand?" Grandpa looked over at her, smiled and obligingly took her aged hand in his. Growing bolder still, Grandma said, "Honey, do you remember when we were first married? You'd kind of nibble on my ear?" Grandpa slowly got up from his rocker and headed into the house. Alarmed, Grandma said, "Honey, were you going?" Grandpa replied, "To get my teeth!"

STAGES OF LIFE: You believe in Santa Claus, You don't believe in Santa Claus, You are Santa Claus, You look like Santa Claus.

Three Minuter - Elaine Schofield

Elaine gave us a rendition of her poem "Its Only Monday" an entertaining report on the shearing team at "Oakvale". You may even hear it again at our annual dinner with Tuggeranong at Michelago.
