GUEST SPEAKER:

Annual Joint meeting with Tuggeranong Club

LAST WEEKS MEETING was our annual joint meeting at Michelago with the Tuggeranong Club. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of a Sapphire pin to Ron Kelly's - attachment to his Paul Harris fellowship award, for the work he has done for both clubs over the years. Well deserved Ron!

Our exchange student Linda made a banner presentation to the Tuggeranong club, and a short address on her background.

The night was very well attended with great fellowship. The hosts "Tuggers" had some entertaining programs with points awarded to each club for their members answers. "Tuggers" came out on top, mainly due to Sharron -in the black hat- point scoring. So they had the privilege/ non privilege of taking home the Dave Holgate rotary lamp.

There were some verse recited by members of each club and the evening finished with Margaret Hassells the following recital.

"Our Neil's a sergeant of note,
He often plays the goat,
He picks our minds
For his spurious fines,
But sometimes misses the boat.

As is the custom on these meetings the fines/raffle fees are donated to the Michelago Rural Fire Service and this year were presented with a cheque for $223.

WE MEET WEDNESDAYS 6:00PM FOR 6:30PM AT NAAZ INDIAN RESTAURANT, 161 SHARP STREET, COOMA
