Combined Meeting with Tuggeranong

What a busy week we have had this week, as demonstrated by the photofest instead of the usual writing. It started with our combined meeting with Tuggeranong at Michelago. On Thursday Liz Dee, Interact Co-ordinator from the Snowy Mountains Christian School, accompanied by Mark J-N took Lea, Tamara and Jasmine Bujalski to Canberra to hear the Young Australian of the Year Akram Azimi speak. Akram was the guest of Canberra Rotaract. From all reports this was an awesome night and he is an amazing young man. Finally this weekend we had the Market which supported the Cooma Multicultural Festival. The weather was ordinary but attendance was good.

Enjoying the company of our fellow Rotarians.
