2013 - 14 Change Over Dinner

At the Change Over Dinner this week we farewelled President Richard and the old board and welcomed President Margaret (Hass) and the new board. In his farewell speech Richard expressed his heartfelt thanks to his board, and the whole club, for their great support throughout the year. He also thanked Peter D (Sergeant-at-Arms), Les S (Dinner Bookings) and Brian J (Chairman, Club Administration Committee). Additionally he summarised the focus of the last year, which included raising $4,443 for the Cooma Public School Special Needs project, 2 more benches in at Rotary Oval, support for the Community Chest, the Country Music Muster, the High Country Monthly Markets and catering specifically for the bush-fire fire fighters and BlazeAid. All these things were achieved without any reduction to other projects like PNG, and Nepal. Richard also presented Letters of Appreciation to John K, Mark J-N, Elaine S, Brad Constance & Tom Shirvington.

In her inaugural speech President Margaret introduced her new board and expressed thanks to Richard for the past year, she also thanked Tamara & Craysha for providing music for the evening and bid a fond farewell to Lea. In addition she shared with us the new theme for the year "Engage Rotary - Change Lives".

Special guests Anton Pemmer proposed a toast to Rotary International, Interact President Jasmine Bulalski expressed thanks on behalf of the guests and visitors and Michael Pedler acknowledge the toast to Rotary International and spoke about some projects close to the heart of Rotary International including the Peace Symposiums and the eradication of polio.
