NOTICES:

There will be a Mothers Day lunch at the Bowling Club on 10 May, 12-2pm. There will be a free glass of champagne plus a half-priced dessert for the mothers. Music by Dave Wilkins, prizes to be won, proceeds to MCCR. Please book on either 64521229 (club) or 0401 461329 (Lisa).

The Salvation Army is looking for volunteers to take part in the Red Shield Appeal.

It is now time for Bowel Care, the campaign running over May and June. Kits, $15 each, can be collected from Hooks Pharmacy and pharmacies in Jindabyne and Berridale. After sending the sample away, results will be advised both to the resident and the doctor concerned within a fortnight.

A thank you card was received from Dr Rob Wiles for our hospitality to the med students.

Hans Neumeyer and Elaine Passfield as holding an exhibition of their work from 23 May until 6 June.

Neil B is travelling to Nepal with his friend Ongchuu Sherpa on 18 May. A collection to support them resulted in an amount of $840. Both Peter and Neil spoke about the people, their generosity of spirit, their resilience and their independence, amid poor living conditions which are the norm for so many Nepalese. The devastation of the earthquake has added to the difficulties. 1700 shelter boxes and 2700 shelter box kits have been sent to Kathmandu, but there is much work to do.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK (Geoff): From Marcus Aurelius – He who lives in harmony with himself lives in harmony with the universe.

Waste no more time arguing about what a good man should be: be one.

Thank you to the members of the Cooma Little Theatre, Caroline Fox who adapted the script of War of the Worlds, Nell Pernitsch, Jayne Keegan and Nigel Griffiths for bring the play reading to the Rotary meeting for inviting the Rotarians to participate.
