Rotary Club of Cooma Inc

January Theme: Vocational Service

Meeting – 11 January 2017

Guest Speaker – Tala Ferguson

Thank you to all who helped at the markets:
John K, Carlo, Wolfgang, Dave B, Helen, Elaine M, Elaine S, Sue, Tom, Robbyn, John Ch, Brian L, Darrell and Ken.

SHOW AND TELL:

Elaine M. brought a probate document written in the 1880s for the estate of John Mooney Snr. She also brought the pay sheet from her law firm, Walker, Gibbs and King, recording her first pay in the office. Elaine and her brother John are 4th generation Mooneys, descended from a convict who arrived in NSW in 1832.

Hass brought a photo (above), an aerial photo taken in the 1950s, of the tobacco farm belonging to her grandparents. The farm was located at Mareeba on the Atherton Tableland in North Queensland.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Meg read a thank you letter that had been received from a student at St Jude's in Tanzania.

John K reminded everyone of the markets, mentioning the need for a theme for the February markets (now having a pet parade);

March markets are multicultural while April markets will be on Easter Sunday.

A reminder from Mark C to bring bottles of wine for the auction at the Sir William Hudson Memorial Centre fete.

Thank you to the chefs who gave us an excellent meal!
