GUEST SPEAKER:

Nerrida Bailey

Dinner at the Cooma TAFE

Last weeks meeting was at the Cooma TAFE where we were treated to great cuisine prepared and served by the 2nd year students.

The menu consisted bruschetta to start, followed by an alternate choice of:

4 entrée,
4 main meals; and
3 desserts.

This was followed by petit fours with tea and coffee.

Nerrida Bailey, who has been a teacher at the Cooma TAFE since 1997, gave a short presentation about the hospitality component of the Cooma TAFE.

Nerrida gave the club a report on the classes and different programs held at TAFE. She explained about the need for diversity as the students enrolled in the program could be anything from school students to apprentices, trainees, and that some were already employed in local businesses.

Rotarians were then introduced to the students who had participated in the preparation, presentation and serving of the meal.

At the end of the evening, we were given a tour of the kitchen and shown the extensive cooking and other facilities offered to students of the TAFE.

The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.
